

October 8, 2014

Alpha Zeta Sisters,

You are the best!

Thank you to the 87 sisters who rose to the challenge of paying their dues before or at the September 18 meeting. One of you will receive a free meal at the November 8 meeting. All members have now paid their dues. Vicki and I truly appreciate your promptness.

Thank you to Sandra Hollenback,, Theresa Sparrow, Phyllis McNeal, Connie Burlingame, Deneen Lantz, and Joyce Van Dusen for doing an excellent job as hostesses for the September 18 meeting. The seasonal decorations and "an apple for the teacher" added a special flavor for our first meeting of the new biennium.

Congratulations to Janet Zimmer who was inducted into the Pennsylvania Voter Hall of Fame. Janet and her husband Reed have voted in at least 50 consecutive elections.

Just a follow-up to Cindy's reminder about the Raffle Baskets for the November meeting. If you have not yet been contacted about helping with a basket, check with other members from your school district as to what might be needed or planned for the basket. Your input is always appreciated as you have creative and original ideas that are worth sharing. Remember that the Basket Raffle is the only fund-raiser we have for the Baby Books Project. Beth Carman and Claire Waldmeyer, with your help, plan to continue this successful program. Beth's presentation at the September meeting was inspiring and informative.

Hoping that those of you who are still teaching are off to a great start and that those retired are finding many exciting things to do, be it long-anticipated projects or exciting trips. Maybe you are just getting more involved with community projects as are Mary Herman and Ruth Olson who were pictured in the October 4, 2014, issue of the Daily Review as committee members for the Pennsylvania Apple & Cheese Festival.

The November meeting program will be a presentation by Liz Herman on her adventures in Costa Rica. There will also be happy members who will be the winners of the baskets!

Note: Please check your e-mail address in the yearbook and let Cindy know if yours is incorrect.

Enjoy the beautiful leaves and sunny days.

Sincerely,

June Wynne