

News Release

For Immediate Release: (Date of Release)

Communications Chair: (include the person's name, email address and phone number)

Chapter President: (include the person's name, email address and phone number)

Nearly 300 women flooded The Nittany Lion Inn for the 81st Delta Kappa Gamma (DKG) Alpha Alpha State Convention held June 15-17, 2018 on Pennsylvania State University's main campus.

(Indicate # of members attending the convention from your chapter-spell out number) members from (insert chapter's name) chapter including: (list names of your members that attend followed by the school district or educational organization they work for) attended the recent state convention and participated in various events during the educational and fun-filled weekend.

Our convention this year focused "The Circle of Membership" through Leadership, Scholarship, Mentorship, Friendship and Fellowship. The International Guest Speaker was Nita R. Scott, Executive Director of Delta Kappa Gamma International who spoke to the membership on Saturday Morning in the First General Session. Christine Mahon was the guest speaker at the President's Banquet. Her talk was centered on "Five Essential Friendships"

Established in 1929 in Austin, Texas, by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton and eleven co-founders. Delta Kappa Gamma provides members with outstanding opportunities for professional and personal growth. Opportunities include: seminars and conferences for leadership training and development, fellowship in an extensive network of educators, state and international scholarships and enrichment grants, and stipends for research, and special projects. More information about the society can be found at www.dkg.org and www.alphaalphapa.com.

