President's Message by Crystal Header

Spring has sprung! As our chapter looks ahead to spring, we have some exciting events coming up! We have two events in April. We have our meeting on April 6 where Cindy Reynolds will reenact Annie Blanton. In addition, some of the Girl Scouts will be joining us to receive their badge for the work they did with us. Our work with the Girl Scouts showed remarkable similarities between Annie Blanton and their founder, Juliette Low. The Girl Scouts have asked us to consider donating money for them to complete their service project that involves making blankets for animals at an animal rescue. We will be collecting that money at our April 6 meeting.

We have another exciting event in April. On April 9, Donna along with three other ladies will be performing some piano arrangements. Please consider attending both events.

At our March meeting, we had a lovely time at Becki's house. Darlene and Donna organized some great spring crafts for us. At that meeting, we chose our state convention basket would be chocolate, chocolate, chocolate theme. In addition, we addressed the new change that National made regarding student members. The motion was made and approved to accept student members at no cost to them. As a student member, they do not have voting rights so we did not feel they should be charged. Each chapter was given the liberty to decide what/if any fees would be charged to student members. Moving forward, we will encourage our Grant in Aids to join via the student membership.

Looking ahead, our May meeting will honor our Grant in Aids. Mary Fetrow is planning an additional Wendy's fundraiser, and in August, we will have a social. Pat has arranged for us to see the musical, Best Little Whorehouse in Texas at Totem Pole Playhouse.

Pennsylvania State Convention June 14-16, 2019

- If we get 10% of our chapter to attend Convention this year, we will get one free registration to give to a member we would like to see attend the convention this year (6 members).
- There will be a PA State Store Sale. It's an opportunity to buy something for an award or initiate.
- If you still have the red bling lanyard, wear it at convention again this year.
- Royce Boyd is looking for a chapter to make the centerpieces for the convention banquet this year. She is providing $250 for expenses. [REDACTED]
- Another wine tour is being planned. Stay tuned for details and reservations.
- Read the State News online for an update on rule changes that will be voted on at convention.

Thanks to Becki Fry for hosting our March 16 meeting. Becki has a beautiful home with lots of room to create our cards. We were greeted with St. Patrick's Day beads and pins to wear. Refreshments followed the Paddy's Day theme with cupcakes, snacks mix, homemade shamrock candies and much, much more. Thanks to everyone who provided refreshments. Darlene Sheaffer led an enjoyable and motivating card-making workshop. She created three unique card samples as choices for us to make, including all the tools and components needed to craft the finished project. Thanks, Darlene, for sharing your talent with us as well as supplying all the items free of charge.
