What Are Your Heart-songs? The 73rd Alpha Alpha State Convention

by Melody Hannegan

If someone approached you and asked, "What are your 'Heart-songs'?" what would your response be? We are all individuals, our hearts singing different tunes, but you might be amazed how the songs of many people carry melodies and harmonies that reflect your own, or with their diversity, enrich your own.

The Alpha Alpha State Convention was all about these "Heart-songs" and it started Friday evening when the 2010 Women of Distinction were recognized for their achievements outside of DKG. Every one of them directed her heart's passions into actions that positively affected her students and communities.

Woman of Distinction honorees See page 12 for further information

After that ceremony, everyone headed to a game of "Poor Man's Bingo." After buying a card on which we placed our own 10 numbers (from numbers 1-50), the caller announced numbers in a random order.

Alpha Alpha State President's Message

By Susan Stamm

"Love yourself first and everything else falls into line. You really have to love yourself to get anything done in this world."
Lucille Ball

What an exciting time it is for chapters in Alpha Alpha State! Forty-eight incoming chapter presidents accepted the passing of the red rose at state convention in June and are assuming their responsibilities. We welcome and congratulate you newly elected officers for accepting the challenge of leading your local chapters with passion throughout the 2010-2012 biennium. Thirty-four incoming presidents participated in the training provided by the Leadership Development Committee in March. This outstanding training equipped these women with the confidence and knowledge they need to rekindle the passion for Delta Kappa Gamma. I hope that their enthusiasm will become contagious across the state. On behalf of the other officers of Alpha Alpha State, I offer heartfelt thanks to the out-going chapter presidents, officers, and committee chairmen. You have worked with dedication and commitment to the mission of the Society during the 2008-2010 biennium.

This issue of our newsletter has reports of all the convention happenings. Be sure to read Melody Hannigan's review of the convention. Also, go over the articles that report the 2010 Woman of Distinction honorees, and the Scholarship and Enrichment Grant Awardees. Twenty-six women were honored because they received honors for achievements outside of our organization. Four women received scholarship aid in the amount of $8,500, and ten women were awarded enrichment grants totaling $15,100. Our members truly are outstanding women. The members who attended convention shared their heart-songs, welcomed our guests, Dr. Sigrún Klara Hannesdóttir, International Second Vice President, and Dr. Muriel O'Tuel, Keynote Speaker. They tended to Society business and enjoyed all the activities of the weekend. It was a wonderful feeling, as Alpha Alpha State President, for me to feel the energy and enthusiasm from everyone there.

As I reflect on my first year as state president, the first thing that comes to mind is how you have treated me as I have traveled and visited you across the state. You have made me feel like a queen. I thank you for all you have done to make my year run smoothly. I want to do so much more visiting during this coming year. Please be sure to contact me soon to schedule a date.

Now I plan to slow down my schedule and take some time to relax before heading out to Spokane in July for the International convention. I am excited about leading the Pennsylvania delegation this summer and am honored to represent you on the International Board. This convention is extremely important because we will be voting on the proposed revisions to our Constitution and International Standing Rules. Be sure to take time to read these proposals. They are included in the March/April issue of the DKG NEWS. If you are attending convention, you need to be informed about your voting; if you cannot attend, you may share your opinions with those of us who will be there. New International officers will be elected and installed, hopefully including our own Dr. Lyn Schmid as Northeast Regional Director. I look forward to hearing the goals and initiatives of the incoming International president.

In August, your state officers and committee chairmen will be meeting in State College to plan for the upcoming year. There will be much work to be done to prepare for the Fall Area Conferences...and the Northeast

MEMBERSHIP

By “Annie” (aka Kay Stuart, Membership Chairman)

Dear Annie,

As we make plans for the next biennium, is there anything we should consider as we put together our chapter programs and activities?

Rita Paper

Dear Rita,

I am really glad you asked. One of the things we all can do is to let people know what our Society does. Let them know that The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is a professional honor society for women educators with more than 106,000 members. It is established in 17 member countries around the world. The Society defines its mission as promoting professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education. We are a major philanthropic organization, giving scholarships, enrichment grants, and recruitment grants, as well as supporting International and state projects.

Be sure someone in your chapter is in charge of public relations. Publicize chapter projects and activities, as well as your attendance at state and International events. This can be done through traditional news outlets, but also through a newsletter posted in the faculty rooms of schools in your area. Sponsor “big idea” community events such as Back-to-School vaccinations, fall flu prevention programs, spelling bees, or career days. Be sure your chapter name is visible as a sponsoring organization.

Your members are all part of other organizations. Be sure they promote your chapter leaders as presenters or speakers for these other groups.

Best wishes on your new biennium.

Dear Annie,

The number of members in our chapter is dropping. What can we do?

Hedda Members

Dear Hedda,

We need to nurture our members, young and old, and by doing so we can maintain our numbers. Nurturing our members is everyone's job, particularly the job of nurturing our newest members. Purpose #6 directs us to do that. (To stimulate the personal and professional growth of members and to encourage their participation in appropriate programs of action.) Here are a few ideas:

*Spotlight a few members briefly at each meeting.

Consider achievements, jobs, birthdays, children, etc.

*Follow up on absences from meetings, even if you know why they were absent. Make a phone call; send an email; or send a card. Let them know they were missed.

*Give a prize for every member who attends every meeting during the year.

*Arrange for transportation for those members who don't want to drive.

*Provide babysitting for younger members who need it.

*Promote the responsibility to new members - Sponsoring members should call them to see if they need a ride, keep in touch with them regularly by phone, email, or cards, and take them to state functions.

Speaking of state functions, I know your state membership committee is looking forward to seeing you at one of the fall area conferences. They will have materials to help you recognize the needs of our multi-generational Society, where to look for new members, icebreaker activities that can be used at meetings, and ways to focus on your members. Registration information can be found on page 17 in this edition of The Keystonean.

To increase our numbers, we need to ASK those young, outstanding women educators to join our membership. We all know them, but seem shy about asking them. Invite them to attend meetings as guests so they can see for themselves what philanthropic and professional work we do. I recently ran across the following poem that shows how valuable individual members can be in the effort to increase the membership of our organization.

The Value of One Member

Ten little members standing in line
One disliked the President, then there were nine.
Nine ambitious members offered to work late
One forgot her promise, then there were eight.
Eight creative members had ideas good as heaven
One lost enthusiasm, then there were seven.

“Navigating Your Way to a Successful Chapter Program”

By Louann Shrader, Program of Work Chairman

Summertime. While the living is easy - chapters are busy planning programs for next year. Each chapter's needs and interests are as different as the children we teach. The magic is finding the right fit and interest that meets the diversity within your own chapter.

You're on the right path if your program ideas address the interests of all members either personally or professionally. You're on the right path if you keep the seven Purposes in the forefront while planning your programs. As you plan, check off the Purposes achieved with each program.

Program ideas are endless. If you attended state convention you may have found an idea at one of the info fair tables that would be of interest to your chapter members. If you attended state convention you may have taken advantage of Dr. Sigrún Klara Hannesdóttir's workshop on chapter programs and have gotten some ideas in her workshop to take back to your chapter planning session. And if looking for additional ideas try the International website. The amount of information on our International website keeps growing and you're sure to find a program idea or project that is the right fit for your chapter!

Navigating the International website and finding the information you want is easy. Follow these steps:

Go to www.dkg.org, the International website

Go to the bottom of the page and click on site map

Scroll down to Program of Work and click on program ideas (then stand back for the explosion of ideas that will come your way)

In this area of the website you'll find programs about our founders, a power point, 39 different program ideas to choose from, 26 different projects your chapter could get involved in, and some icebreakers as well.

Whatever path and wherever your program planning sessions take you, the Society has an available compass that can be used to navigate and locate ideas that can make your chapter programs meaningful and interesting to the diversity that makes your chapter unique among others. ■

Regional Conference in Hershey in July 2011. In September and October Alpha Sigma and Beta Iota invite all members to join them for a day of fellowship and leadership training. (Registration forms can be found on page 17 in this issue.) The Leadership Development Committee and the Alpha Alpha State Officers are planning a wonderful day for everyone to celebrate what's right with your chapter, our state and the world. The workshops will provide training for chapter leaders, including presidents, other officers, committee chairmen and any member looking for leadership and membership connections. I urge every member to take advantage of this excellent leadership opportunity. If you were unable to be in Spokane, you will want to attend a fall area so that you can keep current with the happenings of the organization. So select the date - September 25 or October 16 - and the location - New Castle or Camp Hill. I look forward to seeing you!

I look forward to the coming year where we shall work to rekindle our passions for the Society, our schools, our communities...and the world!

The Value of One Member

Seven loyal members got into a fix
They quarreled over programs, then there were six.
Six members remained, with spirit and drive
But one moved away, then there were five.
One became indifferent, then there were four.
Four cheerful members who never disagree
'Til one complained of meetings, then there were three.
Three eager members. . . what do they do?
One got discouraged, then there were two.
Two lovely members, our rhyme is nearly done.
One joined a bridge club, then there was one.
One faithful member was feeling rather blue
Met with a neighbor then there were two.
Two earnest members each enrolled one more
Doubled their number, and then there were four.
Four determined members just could not wait
'Til each won another, then there were eight.
Eight excited members signed up sixteen more
In another six verses, there will be a “thousand-twenty four.”

Use Research to Rekindle the Passion

By Cindy Reynolds, Research Chairman

Two of the goals of the Alpha Alpha State Research Committee have been to assist chapters in maintaining their membership profiles and demographic information and to compile a database of workshop presenters. The articles in this column throughout the year have addressed these items in detail. The gathering of this data and then analyzing what the information reveals about the members, will help to develop an action plan to maintain and rekindle members' passion for the Society. The following items are in need of immediate attention in order to implement the action plan in the decision-making process:

- ❑ Chapter Demographic Forms are to be sent to the state research committee chairman on or before October 1, 2010. Forms are needed from all chapters except Phi and Kappa who have already submitted their forms. Chapters and state can utilize this valuable information as a way of addressing membership needs such as determining gaps in membership in terms of age, area of expertise, educational environment, and school districts represented. The information along with the chapter profile will also help to make decisions about program planning and to continually reevaluate ways to rekindle the members' passion for the Society.
- ❑ State Forms for Workshop Presenters. The goal of this project is to compile an on-going database of chapters and members willing to present personal and professional workshops which addresses Purpose #3 of the Society. Once it is compiled, the information will be easily accessible on the state website. Individual members, chapters, state, and International will find the information an excellent resource in planning meetings, workshops, conferences and conventions.

These forms as well as the newly designed Research Brochure were distributed at the state convention, will be available at the fall area conferences, and can be downloaded from the Alpha Alpha State website, deltakappagamma.org/PA under forms.

In preparation for the possibility of the Research Committee being eliminated in the committee restructuring by International, the present committee has worked to help other committees to be aware of ways that they can utilize research to drive decisions and for planning purposes in their committee work. A business card has been designed and distributed with The Decision-Making Process Steps that all committees and members can use. It, too, can be downloaded from the website.

So help your chapter complete and submit its demographic form, become a part of the database of workshop presenters, read the Research Committee's Brochure, and find ways of utilizing the Decision-Making Process. These are all items which will help you personally rekindle your passion.

THE LEGISLATIVE HEARTBEAT

by Elizabeth Brewer

From Vision to Action: Advancing the Society Through the US Forum

Mission of the US Forum

The United States Forum seeks to serve the interests of members and reflects the purposes and mission of the Society. Emphasis is on sharing information and ideas that explore solutions to common problems.

It certainly was a pleasure meeting so many of you at our recent state convention and it was so wonderful to see the passion and enthusiasm for The U.S. Forum initiatives. Reports from the meeting will on our website. See all of you at our fall area meetings to hear about the events that occurred at the Spokane convention of DKG.

Opportunities:

Internationally - You are still invited to write-up any cultural exchange lessons that you have done with your class or in another learning arena within the United States or internationally. Complete the International Cultural Exchange Activity sheet found on the state's website under U.S. Forum. Ideas will be shared at the fall area meetings.

Nationally - Stay attuned to any "call-in days" to legislators that may be organized by reputable educational groups which support funding to save educational jobs. We have seen unprecedented cuts in our profession during the last several months and there is no sign of any change. Be proactive and take a stand to save jobs in order to ensure the future education of the children in the USA.

Also be watchful of state laws similar to the recent law enacted in Colorado that ties teacher evaluations to the progress of their students on achievement tests. A national momentum to overhaul instructors' pay and tenure by tying them to federal funds is another sign of the changing politics of education reform.

Commonwealth - The projected pension spike for 2012-13 of the Pennsylvania Public School Employees' Retirement System (PSERS) has been caused by investment losses in two down markets and the underfunding by state and school districts. As the fall elections begin to heat up, be aware of the platforms being espoused by those running for your local school positions and government offices. It is imperative that the pension dilemma be handled with a positive and healthy plan for current and future employees.

National Heartbeats:

Health Warning for Diabetics

Be aware of the drug Avandia. Since 2003 the Nader Public Citizen/Health Research Group has warned of serious side effects affecting the heart from taking this drug. In 2008 the American and European Diabetes Associations warned doctors not to use the drug. Physicians at the Food and Drug Administration concluded that the drug is "too dangerous to be sold," but the pharmaceutical company was able to override this recommendation. In a February 2010 issue of the New York Times a warning was published about the side effects of the drug.

Alpha Alpha State Convention 2010

All at once, women bounced out of their seats to grab gifts, first from the center of the room and then from each other. Some packages were so enticing that they exchanged hands dozens of times. Laughter tugged at everyone's heart strings and whether we left empty-handed or with 1 or 2 prizes, all had huge smiles on their faces - it was such a fun game. The Projects Committee extends its thanks to all who contributed prizes and played. The proceeds of $680 will be allocated to the 75th Anniversary State Convention in 2012.

Poor man's Bingo...lots of good-natured DKG fun!

Also Friday night, several of the chapters that brought canned and dried goods for the State College Food Pantry first built sculptures with the donations. From the Grand "Can"yon to the winning Delta Kappa Gamma red rose constructed by Beta Kappa, every sculpture was a wonderful example of the creative spirit of DKG sisters.

Saturday morning in the First

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Muriel O'Tuel

General Session, Dr. Muriel O'Tuel delivered an inspirational keynote address. This DKG member and author of Footprints on the Heart touched us all with her humorous and heart-wrenching tales of the footprints which have been left on her heart. In the end, she encouraged all there to appreciate the footprints of others and to continue to leave footprints of our own.

We also had the great opportunity to meet and hear from Dr. Sigrún Klara Hannesdóttir, International 2nd Vice President, throughout the weekend. Not only did she share news from the international level with us, she told of her "Heart-songs": traveling and enjoying the members of DKG. This awesome Icelander has traveled to 80 of 100 countries she aspires to visit.

Dr. Sigrún Klara
Hannesdóttir, International
Second Vice President

At each gathering, members from across Pennsylvania shared what their personal "Heart-songs" were: love of a rich Polish heritage, an appreciation for antiques, a joy in receiving and giving love/like messages, just to name a few. Then, the Alpha Alpha State Chorus captured the favorite "Heart-songs" of our membership with tunes about travel, gardens, music, and country at the Saturday night banquet.

The Alpha Alpha State Chorus captured our hearts with their songs!

Other "Heart-song" moments included the celebration of chapters' birthdays as well as the recognition of members in attendance with 40 years or more of membership in DKG; the handing over the red roses from out-going chapter presidents to the newly-elected presidents; and the often-humorous and always interesting acceptance speeches made by this year's scholarship and enrichment grant recipients. (See page 11)

In short, like the musicians of a symphonic orchestra, nearly 300 DKG sisters played their "Heart-songs" at this year's convention. We left enriched by the songs of others and confirmed in our own. So, what are your "Heart-songs?" Come! Share them at the 74th Alpha Alpha State Convention in June of 2011! ■

Pennsylvania is ecstatic to have an International Scholarship recipient again. She is Sharon Ferringer from Alpha Iota Chapter who received the Zora Ellis International Scholarship. Congratulations Sharon!!!

Thank you to the Scholarship Committee – Marlene Buljat, and Lois Brown – who worked so capably at the convention. We missed Gayle Goltra and Carole Hostetter. All worked very conscientiously this year. Appreciation is sent to Peggy Critchfield for making the many attractive certificates. Special thanks to President Susan for appointing me to chair such an exciting and active committee. Also “green” thanks to Treasurer Linda O’Connor for continuing to make money for us so we can provide such monies to wonderful and capable women. ■

Doctorate Awardee Recognized

by Alice Hudak, Professional Affairs Committee Member

One of the highlights at the Celebration Luncheon during convention this year was acknowledging Marjorie Paradise for her accomplishment in completing her doctoral dissertation : “Student and Administrator Perceptions of Alternative Education Programs.” Marj completed her doctorate in May 2010 at Immaculata University.

Before transitioning to the school setting, Marj worked in psychiatric hospital settings as a social worker and therapeutic activities director.

Marj is currently the corresponding secretary for Chi Chapter. Her community involvement is impressive...as is the fact that she is the mother of seven and proud grandmother of five. I wonder what she and hubby, Steve, do in their “spare” time???. She assured me she cherishes those moments spent with the family.

Marj, your Alpha Alpha State sisters are proud of you. Congratulations, Dr. Marjorie Paradise.

2010 Woman of Distinction Awards

by Alice Hudak, Professional Affairs Committee Member

On Friday, June 11, 2010, The Assembly Room at the Nittany Lion Inn was overflowing with anxious Delta Kappa Gamma members from across the state. Each was awaiting the Woman of Distinction Award Ceremony. (See photo on page 1) Twenty-six “sisters” were honored this year. These women received an honor or distinction for service rendered by an organization or group NOT affiliated with Delta Kappa Gamma. ## In Touch with Tech

by Bonnie Barnes

My last challenge to you concerning technology usage was to check out our official DKG website and take the “TQ” self assessment survey offered under DKG Tech Talk. If you did not have the opportunity to do this, that’s understandable. We’re at the end of the school year and there are not enough hours in the day to “get-r-done!” We all need 28 hour days and an 8 day work week, (excluding our retired sisters, who have all the time in the world). LOL (...that’s text short-hand encouraging you to “laugh-out-loud.”)

Well, the challenge to use technology has continued albeit in another task. In our last issue of The Keystonean, page 19, an important message from our editor, Terri Stetler, appeared. She informed us that the fall Keystonean will be published “online” for all members having an email address. To read the next issue, all we have to do is open our email. If we want a “hard-copy,” we will have to print it ourselves. For those sisters not having an email address, a “hard-copy” will be sent to them via “snail-mail.” Translated this means that non-technology sisters will get their Keystonean delivered to their home address by the US Postal Service.

Many pro and con views can be raised about this change but the bottom line is this: technology is here to stay and adaptability to this change is the key. Since we are all key women educators, we understand and embrace this capacity to adapt. We realize that education is a fluid, ever-changing thing. What we did “in-the-old-days” before technology took all day: study units; bulletin boards; assessments; lesson plans. Now, with technology, those tasks can all be completed so much faster with time left over to do so much more. So, in essence, technology has enabled us to create the 28 hour day and the 8 day work week.

Now that I have tweaked your ire, let me redirect you to President Stamm’s message on page 2 of the recent Keystonean. She wants us to ‘rekindle our passion’ and become ‘heart starters’ by living in the present. She wants us to step out of our ‘comfort zone’ and try new things. The close of the school year is a perfect opportunity to do this via technology. Begin by using your computer and search out fun things to see and do in your area. Seek out free, online tutorials to learn Microsoft Word or Excel programs. Take an online college course from your Alma Mater. Take a virtual tour of Hershey, PA, and get a head start on NERC 2011. By using technology, you have a complete reference source at your fingertips. Explore and enjoy.

ETHIOPIA READS THANKS DKG FOR FUNDS FOR DONKEY LIBRARY

by Julie M. Evans, Ethiopia Reads volunteer

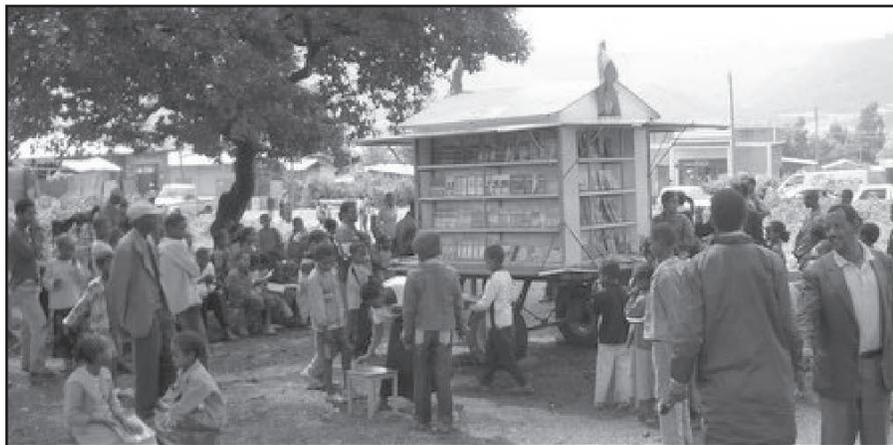

An excited crowd welcomed the DKG-funded Ethiopia Reads donkey library with shouts and singing its first day in Bui, Ethiopia. Bui is 80 miles southwest of Addis Ababa.

Masresha Kibret, manager of day-to-day operations in Ethiopia, wrote this beautiful description of the cart's first day and this thank-you for DKG:

"A unique presence (the donkey mobile library) comes out from its station. (There are) shouts everywhere... songs... slogans:

'Bread and books for children! Readers are leaders-Ethiopia Reads! Those who read bloom! Libraries for rural development!' (The people) all start to accompany (the cart) and express their joy.

The children, government senior officials and parents blessed their God for the chance they got. Finally, they reach at the place where there is a big fig tree. The donkey library parked under its shadow. The cart doors opened. It was filled with many children's books and stools. Everybody can't hide (their) excitement.

DKG's 2009 donation to Ethiopia Reads helped fund this mobile library for children in rural Ethiopia. (The donkeys are grazing elsewhere). These children have rarely, if ever, held a book in their hands outside school.

The donkeys with their decorations attract everyone's attention. Yes, it is a breathtaking event for Bui. Before it came children had no chance to have an access for story books. No way to see the other world. No one knows the pleasure that comes from reading. Thank you, our supporters. You give us birth with a new vision.

Now, the donkeys are grazing and children are reading to fill their hungry brains."

Besides helping fund the donkey library, DKG's 2009 donation also helped fund the printing of the children's bilingual book, Trouble, which is by author Jane Kurtz, DKG's 2009 conference speaker. Sales will help Ethiopia Reads establish and improve children's libraries in Ethiopia

Visit Jane's website at janekurtz.com. To order Trouble online: On Amazon.com, find "Trouble by Kurtz"; click "new"; then choose seller DOWNHOME-BOOKS, which sells the bilingual edition and donates profits to Ethiopia Reads. To order Trouble otherwise, sign up for the Ethiopia Reads newsletter, learn more or make donations, go to ethiopiareads.org.

Rosa Davis, Executive Director writes: "Rosemary has been a dedicated volunteer and community ambassador for POWER from its earliest days to the present. She was a POWER advocate at the start and one of the vocal supporters in the Swissvale community when POWER opened the doors of its residential treatment site in 1991. overwhelmingly positive difference in the lives of POWER women."

As she accepted her award, Rosemary spoke about us, her Theta sisters, and how we continue to support the women of P.O.W.E.R in different ways. She expressed her gratitude to all of us. ### ETA

DKG Shares Literacy Expertise with United Way

Members of Eta Chapter of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International recently presented Christy Renjilian, Senior Director of Community Initiatives of York County United Way with a resource manual for planning Literacy Night programs for primary grade students. The presentation took place at the annual DKG combined chapters meeting held at the Great American Saloon, in Red Lion on Saturday, April 10. The mission of DKG is to "promote professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education," and local members are committed to developing working partnerships within the community toward that end. Eta educators worked collaboratively over the course of more than a year to design and publish the manual which provides directions, guidelines and materials pertinent to the planning of a Literacy Night program.

The Literacy Night experience, which in recent years had been offered annually by Eta members for York City students who were considered "at-risk," was intended to foster the development of the love of reading and to provide their parents with instructions for reading strategies to use at home. A typical Literacy Night evening included the provision of a family meal, a small group interactive read-aloud by a volunteer Eta educator, and a take-home gift bag for each child including a free book, a white board, and marker. Part of Eta's vision in sharing the resource manual with the United Way is to expand the number of students who could possibly benefit from Literacy Night experiences.

One of the initiatives that falls under Renjilian's leadership is Focus on Our Future, a United Way Success By 6™ program. Its mission includes the enhancement of the quality of early childhood education in York County and the preparation of children to succeed in school. "The partnership between Eta and Focus on Our Future is a key example of community organizations working together for the educational benefit of our youngest students," said Eta project chairperson, Mary Goodwillie. "We are very excited about the next phase of our contribution of the manual, which will be the addition of an annotated bibliography to guide Focus on Our Future in selecting high quality books for use in planning Literacy Night lessons."

NERC NEWS

by Royce Boyd and Dr. Lyn Schmid

Next summer at this time, we all will be Busy Bees preparing for the Northeast Regional Conference at Hershey, PA, July 18-23! There are several items to note for discussion during your upcoming chapter meetings.

- Royce Boyd, Conference Coordinator, has a new contact email address as of July 1st. It is rboyd@cksd.k12.pa.us
- We have several items for sale to fund "Pennsylvania Night" at the conference. NERC 2011 pins in the shape of the Commonwealth of PA are $5. Magnet Ribbon holders for your pins can be purchased for $12. The Lucinda Rose pins are now $10 and make wonderful gifts for new members.
- Royce and Dr. Lyn Schmid have been scouring the Commonwealth for affordable, famous PA talent as a feature act for "Pennsylvania Night." They went to a performance of The Vogues in western Pennsylvania and loved them. However, they may be out of our price range. If you have any contacts for other recognizable Pennsylvania groups or talent, please contact Royce with the information.
- We are seeking items that will be presented to the conference delegates that are "Made in Pennsylvania." For what is your area of the Commonwealth known? Apples from Adams? Lebanon bologna? Erie grape products? Pretzels from Lancaster? Heinz pickles? Do you get the idea?! What could your chapter or the chapters in your region provide? Again, contact Royce with possibilities.

It is hoped that Dr. Schmid will be elected to be the Northeast Regional Director at the upcoming International Convention in Spokane, WA. As such, she will be in charge of the conference. Her training will be held this September at which time she and the other Regional Directors will learn the theme and format for all five Regional Conferences. The assignments of work for all of us will take place then. We are looking forward to presenting Pennsylvania as the Keystone State in the Northeast Region in 2011!

FALL AREA CONFERENCES

Once again, the Alpha Alpha State Leadership Committee is offering the opportunity of leadership development for every chapter member during the upcoming Fall Area Conferences.

Everyone will attend the opening morning session; there we will focus on "Celebrate What's Right with the World" and how being one's best for the world suggests an attitude of service and an ability to offer our very best without worrying about how it is received. This motivational video helps us to focus on the positive. The second morning session will provide each chapter chairman and member of a committee to meet with their Alpha Alpha State Chairman for exchanging information, ideas and planning for the biennium.

After lunch a tremendous opportunity awaits members who are looking for new ideas to move their chapters forward.

Incoming chapter presidents are encouraged to register their officers and committee members for the conference in their area, plan carpooling and attend!

Nancy B. Grove

vision in starting this fund has allowed other leaders to develop such programs as the Creative Arts Retreat and provided seed money for the Notan Design Cards being created by our members for the Northeast Regional Conference at Hershey in 2011. She also presided over the Leadership Management Seminar, a biennial event held in PA from the late 1980's through 2000. As she represented us at state, regional, and international conventions, one could realize Nancy's gifts - a natural leader, with a gentle heart and a will of steel. She was initiated into Alpha Upsilon, and later transferred to Beta Beta Chapter. At her passing she was a 40 year member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International.

She was honored for her work in 2006 with the Alpha Alpha State Achievement Award. While she was deeply touched, she never did any of these things to gain recognition. It was just who she was - a good leader who cared, who encouraged, who supported, and who praised the members.

Nancy was born December 8, 1942 in Natrona Heights, grew up in Erie, and earned her degrees from Westminster College and the University of Pittsburgh. She inspired students in the Natrona Heights area for 24 years as an elementary teacher, and spent the last 10 years of her career as an elementary principal in York County. She retired from the Red Lion School District in 1998. When she and her husband, Bruce relocated to Williamsburg, VA, she continued to inspire and teach as she interpreted history to tourists visiting the Jamestown Settlement.

Nancy Grove served Alpha Alpha State with grace and dignity. Nancy will live on in our hearts, and through the visionary legacy she established for the future of our Society.

In Memoriam

No one truly dies; they live on in the hearts of those who love them.

Marolane Stevenson

On June 3, 2010, a new star was placed in the heavens with the passing of one of our beloved sisters, Past Alpha Alpha State President, Nancy B. Grove. "Realizing Visions... DKG Leadership" was the theme for Nancy's biennium, but it was more than just words on a paper. It was her way of life.

She helped us to realize our own personal visions as she traveled across the state meeting her sisters and forging cherished friendships. Those individuals who knew her will all have an individual remembrance of how she touched their lives. Perhaps none will be as meaningful as that chapter member who suffered from a violent attack at school. Nancy showed such dedicated support for this colleague and the students in that building as they dealt with tragedy.

She also helped us to realize visions

NANCY B. GROVE

Alpha Alpha State President

for our chapters, encouraging us to look to our seven purposes as we plan for the future of the organization. She reminded us that as members we have a responsibility to be involved in the work of the Society. But encouragement and reminders were only part of Nancy's leadership. She never forgot to praise the efforts of the membership. Her fondest memory as state president was being able to visit the chapters across the state, learning first hand of the wonderful and progressive happenings in each chapter.

At the state level, Nancy's vision and leadership continued. The Visionary Fund, a fund used for projects and programs that involve the growth and development of Alpha Alpha State and the members began with Nancy. Her
